Cathy knows what it means to cling to God through heartbreak, loss, and waiting. From miscarriage and divorce to a life-altering car accident and a decade-long journey to motherhood, she has discovered again and again that God is faithful—the One who sees, keeps His promises, and speaks truth over our lives.

As author of the KNOWN devotional, co-author of Revelationship and Revelationship devotional (both winners of The Regal Summit 2025 Award), and creator of the 7-week Reset course, Cathy makes theology practical and personal, equipping women to encounter God in their daily lives.

A former software COO and seasoned communicator, Cathy has spoken at national and international trade shows, corporate workshops, church conferences, women’s ministry gatherings, podcasts, webinars, and training sessions of all sizes. Whether in a sanctuary or on a stage, her message is clear: God is pursuing our hearts, inviting us to walk in His freedom, identity, and hope.
